

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

The Criminal Justice field encompasses the agencies of social control including police, courts, corrections, and private agencies. The 33-hour Criminal Justice core provides students with a broad-based understanding of the field. The 15-hour elective block affords students the opportunity to tailor their degree to suit their career goals and interests. Check out the department web site at www.unt.edu/cjus/ for information about faculty, course descriptions, employment opportunities, and links to other criminal justice-related sites. The PACS Office of Student Services assists students with degree planning.

The Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice from the University of North Texas is 120 college credit hours as of Fall 2008. The degree requires 47 hours of general academics, 54 hours in the major, and 23 hours of general electives.
